RACIAL MATTERS

At 9:35 p.m. on December 5, 1965, Sheriff Joe Ed Strickland, Clay County Sheriff's Office, telephonically contacted a representative of the FBI at Columbia, Mississippi, and advised that the vacant three room frame house located adjacent to the Mount Zion Baptist Church, Rural Route 2, Thobs, Mississippi, burned at approximately 7:30 p.m. on December 5, 1965.

Sheriff Strickland advised that upon receipt of information that this house was burning he went immediately to the scene and conducted an immediate investigation to determine the origin of the fire. He explained that this three room vacant house was the property of Vernon Valentine, Rural Route 2, Thobs, Mississippi, and that this dwelling house had been used by workers of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP) from West Point, Mississippi, during the months of July and August, 1965. The house was vacated on or about September 1, 1965, by the workers of the MFDP and has not been used by the MFDP workers since that time. Sheriff Strickland advised that the origin of the fire was not yet established but that he has requested the assistance of the investigators of both the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol (MHSP) and the Thobs Fire Marshal's Office to aid him to determine if the fire in question was purposely set.
